Update from Madagascar

My name is Ferdinand. I am going to testify here to the Glory of God.

During my first years I was still tied up by Satan with drugs. I thank God that I am completely free from smoking. Also taking something which does not belong to me was also my weakness. I had an attitude which was a root of evil to me. I did not have patience in any thing. Thus was it a weapon used by the demon to drift me away from God. I realized that this was where all my conflicts came from along my first year. When I did those sins, nothing interrupted me. I had remorse after doing them, though. I felt bonded, but I had hope for a total deliverance from God.

After days and months, I felt that the Spirit of God came upon me. He put a tough challenge before me in order to draw me to his purpose. For months, God has changed me altogether. I am not the same person as I was before and I know that I am living up a new life.

God taught me to be humble in every area of my life. God has brought me out from darkness. I am willing to share about God's glory to my lost friends. Patience is abiding in me now.

Thanks be unto to the Savior, Redeemer and forgiving Lord. I am free! Praise be unto God alone.

Amen!
